

Licensing Courses

Date 06.04.2007

Dear Prospective Formula BMW Driver,

Thank you for your interest in the Formula BMW USA Scholarship Program and Licensing Courses in Valencia. Having just begun our 2007 season, the interest in Formula BMW USA has grown and the structure for the selection process has been modified to accommodate for this interest. Only drivers who attend one of these Licensing Courses will be eligible for an invitation to the shoot out and have a chance to become a Formula BMW Junior. In order to be eligible for selection/invitation to the Scholarship Course, a driver must have been born after January 01, 1989 and before December 31, 1992. Up to four combined races total from the following racing school series will allow a driver to be eligible.

Skip Barber Racing School Regional Championships,
Bertil Roos
Bridgestone Academy
ESPN/Russell Racing

Participation in any other car race will make you ineligible to be selected to return for a Scholarship. A driver may not participate in the course or the championship if they are hold an International A or B FIA License.

All drivers, who meet the qualifications to race in the championship can apply to attend a Licensing Course, even those not eligible for a scholarship though priority will be given to scholarship eligible candidates and the most qualified applicants will be selected to attend a licensing course. The capacity for each of the two Licensing Courses is fourteen participants and the courses are scheduled for:

July 23rd and 24th, 2007
August 3rd and 4th, 2007

All drivers who successfully participate in any of the Licensing Courses will be eligible to apply for an FIA International C License through their local ASN.

Up to twenty one of the top qualified drivers from all of the Licensing Courses will be invited to return to Spain to compete to become a Formula BMW Junior. The dates of this course are October 3rd and 4th, 2007.

Pricing for the Licensing and Scholarship Course is set at $3,000 USD. This price includes your hotel accommodations for three nights, your ground transportation
